The New Horseman

President’s Message

CSHA is off to an exciting start for 2013. We have some great fundraising raffles going for both English-Western Recovery and Trail Tri- als. The English-Western program is raffling a Trailer; information is posted to the Website and the Trail Trials paperwork is in the final phases for a Clinic with Jonathan Field. Please do what you can to support these endeavors; selling tickets, buying tickets and promotion; helping these programs realize their 2013 goals.

Recently I have advised our Board & Chairmen to do some “spring housekeeping” on paperwork. In an effort and at the attorney’s recommendation the full and correct name: California State Horsemen’s Association, Incorporated needs to be either updated to include the Incorporated, or the full name used in written documents. Once the full name is used the phrase” hereinafter referred to as CSHA” or “CSHA, Inc” can follow in the remainder of a document.

Please check any materials that you are publishing and follow these guidelines. Any questions, you can contact me. I am waiting for comment from the attorney on usage for advertising and/or the logo. Generally the awards and promotional products (i.e. jackets, buckles, decals, etc) are not in question; requirements are less stringent since it is identifiable as a type of trade mark.

I have been continuing to work on completing the Ranch Versatility program the packet will be ready for distribution at the Seminar set by the Judges Commission for March 23rd 9am-3pm San Joaquin County Agricultural Center, Stockton. Ranch Versatility is scheduled to be in the program at the Amador County Fair this year in July and Region 5 is working with a Ranch to host events.

Good wishes to a few of our own, both Ken Wurth of Region 3 and Bryan Button of Region 12 have unexpectedly undergone bypass surgeries. Jack Abrahams was in a car accident recently, run into by a local contractor. He is home and doing fine now. Wishing everyone a speedy recovery.

Endurance

To promote Equestrian issues in regard to land use, on December 10th 2012 we attended a Town Hall meeting in Weaverville with the Dept of Agriculture Secretary and Chairman of the White House Rural Council Tom Vilsack. Mary Homicz, Little Miss C.S.H.A. 2013 and C.S.H.A. Inc. Endurance Program Participant was chosen to speak. Mary commented about trails and horse camps and then Solomon Homicz, Region 18 Trails Chairman commented in agreement about the secretary's proposal that he wants simplification of the National Environmental Protection Act (NEPA) which often holds up trail projects for lengthy periods.

We also have followed up with a letter to Secretary Vilsack regarding Equestrian recreation in Rural areas and also have attended several follow up meetings as well as doing a walk around with local agencies to scope out a site for a new campground in Weaverville that will have all campsites available for Equestrians as well as other trail users. This camp will be available to reserve for group events as well.

C.S.H.A. Inc. State Endurance Program’s State Fund Raising event will be held on the Weaver Basin Trail on July 6th and 7th 2013. This will be two days of 5 mile Poker Rides. 1st prize will be $100 each day; other prizes will be available. There will also be a 25 mile Education Endurance Fun Ride for those that prefer to go a longer distance. There will be no minimum time limit on the 25 mile ride. Camping is available from the 4th of July through the 8th of July.

We would appreciate the membership’s support of turning out for this event and also for the Weaverville Independence Day Celebration Parade on July 4th 2013. All Royalty, Region and State are invited to come and show Trinity County what C.S.H.A. Inc. is about! Then you can camp at the land donated by a private land owner for our ride camp from the 4th through the 8th or only stay for one or two nights. No extra charge for camping. Contact me in late June 2013 for start time and location for staging for the parade. See fliers for more details about the Trail Event. Entry forms will be available at C.S.H.A. Inc. Website on the Endurance page. $5.00 discount if postmarked by June 15th. Profit from this event will be donated to, C.S.H.A. Inc. State Royalty Scholarship fund, The Weaver Basin Horse Camp project, and the AERC trails fund.

We will be handing out State Endurance awards at the Redwood Empire Endurance Riders awards banquet on March 17th 2013 and at the Whiskeytown Chaser on April 20th 2013.

State Endurance Program Chairwoman
Parade

The Parade Program proudly announces their 2012 Champions. The Overall High Point Gist Buckle was won by Connie Hawkins of Columbia who competes in the Miniature Class. The Hank and Alice Overall High Point Junior Trophy was won by Hailey Lopes who competes in the Future Horseman Western Class and is from Turlock.

Three perpetual Awards, The Rob McMackin Silver Punchbowl Set, The Dino Horse Award, and the Paul and Lottie Miles Jr. Achievement Trophy, will be presented at the Awards Banquet in the City of Winters, Saturday evening April 27, 2013.

The State Championship Parade will be held in conjunction with the 71st annual Youth Days Parade in Winters at 10:00 A.M. also on April 27th and everyone is invited to come and watch a special presentation of the beautiful horses and costumes along the route.

Nominations forms will soon be sent to all C.S.H.A. Region Presidents for the Parader’s Grant Handicapped Riding Program. Grants will be awards to handicapped riding programs that are selected from the nomination forms received. The Parader’s Grant Program was founded by Harry and Peggy Narducci and many handicapped programs have received the grants that help to support their operational needs.

Sincerely,
Candy Graham

Animal Disease Traceability  Interstate Travel with your Horse

In order to respond quickly to an animal disease event animal health officials need reliable data quickly to identify and halt disease spreading. Traceability identifies the animals involved, where they are located, and what other animals may have been exposed. A review revealed a need for a national system that would provide accurate and accessible information.

In response the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) has instituted the Animal Disease Traceability Program (ADTP) to improve its ability to trace livestock, including horses, in the event of a disease outbreak. The new system applies to all livestock moving interstate.

The new rule will be effective March 11, 2013. Under the new regulations, horses moving interstate must be (1) identified prior to movement and (2) accompanied by an Interstate Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (ICVI) or other state-approved document. All states now require an ICVI to accompany any horse entering their state. This should make for a smooth transition to the new traceability rule since most horse owners moving their horses interstate for breeding, racing, showing, recreation, etc. should already be in compliance with the provisions in the new rule. California requires a ICVI (referred to in the past often as a CVI) plus a Equine Infectious Anemia (EIA) test also known as Coggins. A negative test for EIA conducted in a USDA approved laboratory, within 6 months prior to entry is required for all equines entering California. Entry is not allowed until the EIA test has been completed and reported negative. Equidae with tests "pending" are not acceptable.

Instead of every state having an individual health certificate requirement, the USDA just made it a national requirement. Because the USDA has given individual states the ability to approve other requirements besides an ICVI, such as an owner-shipper statement, Coggins test or brand certificate, it’s best to pick up the phone and call every state you will be traveling to or through.

The APHIS representative, state representative or accredited veterinarian issuing the ICVI or other document must forward a copy to the state health official in the state of origin within seven days of issuing the document. The state representative in the state of origin must forward a copy to the state representative in the state of destination within seven days of receiving it. In the event of a disease outbreak, these documents will be used to trace horses that are or have been at the site of the outbreak and horses that have come into contact with them. The animal health official or accredited veterinarian issuing or receiving an ICVI or other document must keep a copy for five years to ensure horses can be identified and traced if a disease manifests itself at or after an event.

The United States Equestrian Federation (USEF) announced our own CSHA Inc. member George Joseph “Joey” Gadd of Saratoga, CA as the winner of the 2012 USEF Youth Sportsman's Award. He was nominated by the American Vaulting Association (AVA). Joey who just turned 18 in February was selected from an outstanding group of youth representing their respective recognized breed and discipline affiliates from across the country.

Joey participated in the Royalty Program, and won at both the Regional and State levels. He represented CSHA Inc. as 2006 “Little Ambassador” at many community events and parades. Two years later he burst onto the vaulting scene when he won the Bronze Men Overall class at the 2008 AVA Reg. 2 Championships and a month later took the Bronze at the USEF/AVA National Championships. An all around equestrian, Joey is also a 4-H member and competes at High School Rodeos in Cutting with his eight-year-old AQHA gelding Tapatime. The pair competed at State Finals twice, and won the Rookie of the Year award.

In the last couple of years he has attended numerous national competitions, competing for a second year at the Gold level, and earning wins at the Chilliwack and Kentucky CVI competitions. IN 2012 he was honored to be named the Individual Male alternate for the 2012 FEI World Vaulting Championships this year in Le Mans, France. Joey hopes to compete in the 2014 Alltech FEI World Equestrian Games in Normandy, France as an Individual Male and possibly also on the Team.

The USEF Youth Sportsman's Award is designed to identify potential future leaders in the equine industry and provides recognition to outstanding youth members for their achievements. Joey received a commemorative trophy, a $1,000 grant to the educational program of his choice, and a lifetime membership to USEF, valued at $2,500.

Joey, a great student with a 3.95 GPA and an interest in history and science, hopes to study meteorology at the University of Missouri and become a fighter pilot in the United States Air Force. He is a member of the Civil Air Patrol, the Auxiliary of the USAF with a cadet program for youth ages 12 through 21. He was selected to attend the Cadet Officer's Basic School at Naval Station Lemoore, which requires high academic standards.

Keep an eye on him as he continues to reach for the sky.
Horsemastership

2013 is off to a great beginning. We are starting our year with a few changes, most notably a new study guide. Our new book is “Equine Science: Basic Knowledge for Horse People of All Ages” by Jean T. Griffiths. It’s a great reference book, well written, and I’ve heard lots of positive feedback from participants already. The Horsemastership committee adopted this book at the January quarterly, and it will be used for at least the next three years. For anyone who would like to purchase the book, there is a link on the new Study Guide page on the state website. (the link generates funds back to the HMS program) Thanks!

http://californiastatehorsemen.com/Horsemastership/horsemastership-study-guide.html

Region 18 has taken Horsemastership to a new level on a region basis, as they both have started Junior Horsemastership programs. The Junior programs are focused on young riders, ages 6 – 12. All aspects of the program are revised to fit the skill levels of the younger participants, and extra coaching is available. There is no state level competition for the youth programs, but getting the youth involved and excited about the program prepares them to step up to the regular program when they feel ready.

The Region 18 youth participants have a great role model… their program is led by Lauren Linhart, former 5 time youth state champion, and winner of the Cheryl Hyde-Fonseca award for that achievement.

Drill teams are busy gearing up for a 2013 season. The first competition of the year is the CSHA California Championships May 4th & 5th at the Diamond Bar Arena in Ceres. This time of year is also a time for raising the funds needed to travel with a dozen or more people and horses.

CSHA is helping teams sponsoring a raffle. CSHA has provided some great prizes for the fundraiser including a 50” T.V. a Disney family package and a $300 gas card. Teams are selling the tickets and will bank a percent of the proceeds to pay for their entry and stall fees at CSHA drill events. The winning tickets will be drawn at the State Championships.
