President’s Message

CSHA is keeping up the pace of a busy Spring already! Seems like all the weekends are getting booked with shows and events and everyone is on the road again.

We recently attended the Day at the Races at Golden Gate Fields and had a really enjoyable day with a large group of our Royalty from State and Regions as well as many youth participants. It is a “dress up” day and nice social atmosphere to share with the families and friends that attend.

In March Alice Lawellin and Alice Calhoun put on the judges symposium for the Ranch Versatility. This is in conjunction with the new CSHA pilot program and was well attended by many of our judges and interested persons. Thanks you to the 4-H from Region 4 who served a lunch-fundraiser for the attendees.

My own Region kept us busy with the 20th annual Spring Stampede. The show was a success and most everything is put away for another year………………..now I can catch up with my own ranch work!

For a Sunday break we went to the CSHA State Drill Team Competition at Diamond Bar Arena in Ceres. Outstanding is all I can say!! It is such a pleasure to watch these young people & adult teams compete and work so hard at the skills necessary to ride drill team. Congratulations to all the teams and thanks to the parents and families that make it possible with all their hard “crew work”.

Thank you to Jill Kraut, Chair and all the team of judges and helpers that make this such a successful event!! Let’s give a special thanks to her best helper, husband Ken Kraut. It takes a team…………….

Our next big date is the Western States Horse Expo at Sacramento. Please contact Sue Edwards, Northern Area VP if you can spare some time to man the booth. The Royals will be selling the tickets for the Trailer Raffle for the English-Western Program.

Have a safe and fun summer. See you out there,

Jim Hendrickson

ACTION ITEMS

- The Life Fund savings was approved to be merged into the main savings account.
- The Board approved the Finance committee recommendation of a three (3) year audit for Region II.
- In the future, if the CSHA treasurer has to reconstruct the financial records of a Region; the entity will be billed for that service.
- Day at the Races profit will go to Charitable Trust for Royalty Scholarships.
- Other carded recognized Association Drill Team Judges can be used by CSHA since there is a shortage of CSHA Drill Team Judges.
- Drill Team Purchase Order requests were approved.
- Due to the fact that Eng/Western did not have a chair in 2012 to move the Rulebook Committee forward, it was approved the Eng/Western Rule 7.0 will be temporarily set aside to allow changes by resolution to the WCHS Rulebook to be made this year and published for 2014; this will bring the rulebook up-to-date.
- $500.00 was approved to upgrade the CSHA booth to a Commercial category at Western Horse Expo in order to sell raffle tickets. However, this will not be necessary since Non-Profits can sell items in their booth.
- Bids were approved for SOC Gymkhana awards
- Horsemastership- the Horseman Handbook is not being used as the main study material for the 2013 year. The book that is being used is “Equine Science” which has a link to purchase the book through Amazon; located on the home page of californiaastatehorsemen.com for your convenience. The 2 supplemental guides will be reviewed by participants after the Region tests are taken for an evaluation of the material for future inclusion.

Drill Team

The 2013 California State Drill Team Championships were held this last weekend May 4th and 5th at the Diamond Bar Arena in Ceres.

Saturday evening the competition was kicked off with the presentation of colors by Chelsea Tindell, lead flag of the Blue Shadows in her 6th and final CSHA Championships before she heads off to Boise State. The performance was filmed as part of her application to become the “Bronco Girl” mascot. The weekend just got better and better for Chelsea and the Blue Shadows as they took home top honors winning the Junior Division State Championship as well as also taking home the Jim Real Trophy and an unprecedented 7th consecutive State Grand Championship Title.

The California Cowgirls reclaimed the Reserve Overall Championship as well as the Senior Division Champion Title and the Compulsory open division.

The Smokin Guns took home both the Quad and Mixed Team Championships for their 2nd year in a row.

Taking charge of the Novice division was the Sacramento Sheriff’s M.L.B. team. Congratulations to the Lucky Clover’s 4-H in a great performance to win the first ever 4-H division. The ever popular and fun Theme division was won by The Cool Country Cowgirls competing in their first ever drill team competition with a football theme.

The very special Robert Lorbeer “Spirit of Drill” Trophy was awarded to the Redding Junior Rodeo Association Drill Team for recognition of their spirit, sportsmanship, and enthusiasm!

Thank you to CSHA President Jim Hendrickson, First Lady and Ad. Practice Chair Carolyn Hendrickson and Northern V.P. Sue Edwards for coming to the competition on Sunday and cheering on the teams and helping pass out awards.

Pictures along with a complete list of placement will appear in the July Newsletter.

State Trails

She took a deep breath in. As she sighed, she let out an audible, “Ahhhhhh....” With a smile of delight. Then she pointed. “Oh! Look at that flower!” The background music was the clip clop of her horse’s feet on a packed dirt trail. The blue Hound’s Tongue danced in the slight breeze. Resembling Forget-Me-Knots, they suggested to her to keep this feeling of this trail ride in the upcoming days as she went about the busy-ness of Daily Life.

These were my observations of my friend yesterday as we explored and patrolled trails in Annadel State Park on Handy-Horse and Mustang Oreo. The two geldings were obvious in their delight of being out on familiar trails, winding through varied forests and grasslands, along a lake, stopping for a snack of spring grass, taking in their own deep breath accompanied by the nose-blow only a horse can do. Why does that make us chuckle sometimes? Because we know they are enjoying their activity, too, and it seems like their own sigh of contentment.

Trail riding is a great form of therapy for both humans and their equine partners. In California we are fortunate to have a great variety of trail riding and horse-camping possibilities, both locally and in backcountry. To maintain equitable access, retain the trails we have, and ensure new trails and parks are open to us, we need to make sure our voice is heard and our presence is felt. This means advocating in a positive fashion, understanding multi-use trail design and use, and attending meetings and planning sessions. It requires time off the saddle, sometimes with your boots on the ground helping maintain those important trails, being visible at local meetings, and writing letters or emails for support.

As our open spaces are steadily declining for development, our voices are important to those who are planning our future trails and parks. If we are not heard, we may lose access. If issues are not resolved well, we may lose access. If we do not advocate ourselves and participate in trail maintenance and building, we may lose access. The best thing we can do is be present.

As your new State Trails Chair I am here to help you with your trails and parklands. I am working on links for each region of organizations, groups, agencies for you to work with in your region to maintain our access and presence. I want to hear from you about links in your area, as well as trail successes, which may help other regions.

Based on my experience in Sonoma County over the past 8 years working with parks and agencies, I have found that if we approach things with a positive attitude towards all trail users and advocate multi-use trail systems, we are greatly appreciated. Many park planners or land managers have no experience of trail riding, and don’t know what our needs are. We can also help with reporting needs of trails and parks as we ride them. Communication with local agencies is paramount. Communication between user groups on the trails is the key to a successful and enjoyable ride.

As your trails representative, I am attending CA State Parks Advocacy Day March 12th in Sacramento, meeting with legislators to discuss State Parks issues. At the CA Trails & Greenways Conference May 8-10, I will be attending a booth with State TRAP Chair Marie Grisham where we will provide information about our programs. I will also be presenting a seminar on a team entitled “A Trail Community For All.” This is about multi-users getting along and working together on trail systems, with me as the equine speaker. In June, we will also attend the Sacramento “Horse Expo” with the CSHA booth.

Most exciting, is a camp and ride weekend I have planned for June 29-30 at Point Reyes National Seashore as a fund raiser to help pay for the booth at the Trails Conference and any other upcoming events where I can represent CSHA to advocate trails. See the flyer and information for details.

Please contact me. I am here to help. Happy Trails!

Sarah Reid, CSHA State Trails Chair, has been trail riding since about 1995. Currently on her Mustang Oreo, they patrol CA State Parks and Sonoma County Regional Parks as Mounted Assistant Unit members. A TRAP member for 8 years, Sarah volunteers for Region 1 TRAP events. Sarah works closely with agencies operating three local CA State Parks that were on the 70 closure list. She works with local park planners on new park development and trail design. She participates in trail work crews with Sonoma County Trails Council, Bay Area Ridge Trail Council and VoCal. Parade

The State Championship Parade was held April 27th in Winters. A recounting of the event will appear in the July newsletter. In other Parade news...

We have lost another great man from our parade family. Mickey Arroyo passed away while attending his beloved horses at the Arroyo Ranch in Livingston. Mickey was a longtime horseman and outstanding parader. His son Jaime and brother Claudio are also such an important part of our parader family. Our prayers and our sympathies go out to the entire Arroyo family in the passing of their loved one.

There will be a new CSHA sanctioned parade in Oakdale on Sunday May 26th. It is organized to benefit a nonprofit antique wagon and carriage museum and will include a chili cook off and various demonstrations. The parade feature will be early and have a short route, beginning and ending at the Oakdale Rodeo Grounds.

Finally, we have two very special parades over Memorial Day weekend this year. Even though they are both scheduled for the same day, it is extremely important that we show our respect in riding in both of them. Mickey Arroyo’s memory will be honored in the afternoon parade and the morning parade is dedicated to the preservation of our past. We hope to encourage the many horse drawn equestrians to join the California State Horsemen’s Association Inc. which is what the event chairman hopes to do in this first annual event of many more to come. Alice Lawellin will judge both parades and there will be plenty of time to participate in both memorials.

Your CSHA Royalty is doing a most excellent job in representing all of us! Since January quarterly our Miss CSHA Katie Cook traveled all the way down to Southern California for the Western States Horse Expo in Pomona, CA. She met up with some of the Southern California Rodeo Queens and Princesses. In February the CSHA Royalty participated in the Almond Blossom Parade. Even our Little Miss Mary Homicz drove all the way down from Weaverville, CA to participate. Special thanks to Becky Clinkenbeard for taking care of the kids and their needs for this parade as I was in Southern California for a funeral. Mrs. Clinkenbeard also hosted a crabfeed to benefit our Region 4 Royalty and Horse Mastership program that same weekend! Although I was unable to attend I heard raving reviews form my husband and son! On a sad note former Ambassador Samuel Cunningham lost his equine partner Snickers.

March was equally busy with different events, horse shows, and traveling to and fro.

Day at the Races! Man did our Royalty shine! Altogether we had 19 youth attend! That must be some kind of record! Most were State or Region Royalty or former Royalty bringing their friends. They mingled with the guests, sold raffle tickets and for the first time ever at our CSHA Sponsored Race our photo was taken with the winning horse and Jockey! How exciting for the kids! I have to say these youths are exceptional and it’s no wonder they receive favor!

Now we are gearing up for the next season! Horse shows have started, parading is in full swing! The State and Region Royalty will be representing at the Livermore Stampede and the State Parade in Winters, CA! Basically many of us have no free weekends until after SOC.

If you would like a member of our Royalty to attend your next event please give us plenty of notice! We would love to help out!

CSHA DAY AT THE RACES

What an Awesome day! Perfect weather, terrific turn out! All the cool kids were there!

This year we had 68 adults register and 19 youth! Most of who were made up of the Royalty both Region and State. It was great to see so many of you get into the spirit and participate in our hat contest! We had prizes and everything. The State and Region Royalty for 2013 circulated the room and judged the hats and then awarded the prizes! It was an exciting day too as there were unfortunately three accidents on the three different races! The food was plentiful and I hope everyone enjoyed their meal. So whether you came for the fun, came to win big, or just came to support this historic event I’d like to say a big THANK YOU! So if you didn’t get to participate this year talk to someone who went and I know you’ll want to come next year. Oh and one more thing as CSHA always sponsors a race and we get to have a photo taken with the winning jockey, well this year the owner of the horse was so impressed with our group the jockey and the horse were included in the photo! How great is that? Bernie our sweet tour guide told me that hasn’t happened in years!

HORSE OWNERS URGED TO CHECK WEST NILE VIRUS VACCINE STATUS

SACRAMENTO, April 12, 2013—As the weather warms up and mosquitoes become more prevalent, California horse owners are advised to consult their veterinarian to ensure their horse’s vaccination status is current for maximum protection against West Nile Virus (WNV).

Even though the disease peaked in California a number of years ago, it remains a risk. In 2012, WNV infection was confirmed in 22 California horses, eight of which died or were euthanized. The number of detections was the highest since 2008. In addition, WNV infection was confirmed in 479 people in California, also a significant spike over recent years.

“Outbreaks of West Nile virus are still a risk for horses,” said California State Veterinarian Annette Jones. “Horse owners should contact their veterinarians as soon as possible to make sure their animals’ vaccination status is current. Vaccination will provide optimal protection against the disease.”

Signs of West Nile virus include stumbling, staggering, wobbling, weakness, muscle twitching and inability to stand. Horses contract the disease from carrier mosquitoes and are not contagious to other horses or people. Over the past 10 years, approximately 40% of horses infected with WNV died or were euthanized.

The best way to minimize the threat of West Nile Virus is to control mosquito populations and prevent exposure to them:
- Reduce or eliminate sources of stagnant or standing water that can serve as a breeding ground for mosquitoes, including old tires, buckets, wading pools and other containers.
- Stall horses during peak mosquito periods (i.e., dawn and dusk);
- Use equine-approved mosquito repellants and/or protective horse gear such as fly sheets, masks, and leg wraps;
- Place fans inside barns and stalls to maintain air movement, as mosquitoes cannot fly well in wind.

CDFA is cooperating with the California Department of Public Health to detect and respond to the disease in California. Horses provide an additional sentinel for WNV disease detection. For more information, click on http://www.cdfa.ca.gov/ahfss/Animal_Health/WNV_Info.html

The Mariposa "Run for the Gold" Endurance Ride

The Mariposa "Run for the Gold" Endurance Ride is back by popular demand and is dedicated to the memory of Richard Theodore who passed away August 27, 2010 after a short illness. "Rich" was born in Oakland, California on October 30, 1953 and moved to Mariposa in 1977 after riding the Mariposa "Run for the Gold" Endurance Ride in 1976. His family was responsible for the ride being held from 1998 until 2008.

Rich loved riding his horses and was active with the American Endurance Ride Conference (AERC), the Western States Trail Foundation (TENTIS), the Mariposa County Sheriff’s Posse, Mariposa Pioneer Wagon Train, Mariposa County 4-H, Mariposa Mountain Riders, California State Horsemen’s Association, and the North American Trail Ride Conference (NATRC).

The Mariposa "Run for the Gold" 25 or 50 mile endurance ride is calendared for June 1, 2013, in the AERC West Region of California and will be hosted by the Mariposa Mountain Riders. It is a picturesque ride that consists of trails and fire break roads along ranches and U.S. Forest Service land with growths of pine, cedar, oak trees and Manzanita in the southern Sierra Nevada Mountains of Mariposa County. It has many panoramic views, some into Yosemite National Park. The trail on the 50 mile has been rerouted so it will not be as difficult as it has been in the past. Elevations vary from 3800 feet to 5000 feet.

Overnight camping from Friday May 31st to Sunday June 2nd will be on the Circle 9 Ranch, a historic working ranch in Jerseydale, about 10 miles northeast of the town of Mariposa. An awards banquet will be held on Saturday, June 1st. This function will close out the 25/50 mile ride with an awards presentation which will include 1st in each category, Top Ten, and Best Overall Condition. All competitors completing the 25 or 50 mile ride will receive a commemorative award and, of course, a delicious catered meal. Additional awards banquet tickets can be purchased for $15.00 each. Bring your own chair and join us around the campfire after 8 p.m. for horse stories, cowboy poetry, and friendly folk lore.

This event is open to the public and all are encouraged to attend for the love of endurance riding, horses, and Rich Theodore. For further information on the ride or entry forms, please go to the AERC website ride calendar or contact:
